

Shred It & Forget It...

Identity theft is the fastest growing crime in the U.S.

According to a recent study released by the Better Business Bureau, over 8.4 million people became victims of identity theft in 2006. In that same year, the economic loss was a staggering 49.3 billion dollars.

Let Us Shred Your Stuff!

North

Saturday, August 23, 2008
DeVry Institute
3300 N. Campbell
9:00 am–Noon
(Northeast parking lot)

South

Saturday, September 20, 2008
U.S. Cellular Field
35th Street & Wentworth Ave.
9:00 am–Noon
(Lot A)

*Consumers can shred up to 10 boxes of personal documents . . . FREE!
Consumers can enter a drawing to win a personal shredder for in-home use.
Refreshments will be available.*

A Cooperative Project of

For more information, contact the City of Chicago, Department of Consumer Services at 312-744-4006 or chicagoshreds.com

All materials shredded at this program are recycled 